When a mermaid attempts to lure her into the sea, fourteen-year-old Adrienne, who lives in a superstitious island community, must choose between the promise of an underwater paradise and those she loves.

When sixteen-year-old Sadelyn Hanson washes up on the shores of Windwaithe Island, her beauty and the strange marks on her wrist make superstitious locals suspect she is a mermaid. Feigning amnesia, Sade hides a far worse secret: she was sailing to her own murder trial when she was thrown overboard by the real killer, the cunning and cruel Captain Westwood. Sade's quiet effort to rebuild her life on the island is threatened when she meets an actual young merman. Unable to speak his language, Sade still longs for the warm companionship he offers, despite the locals' dire legends about merfolk and their dark magic. But her confused feelings for the impossible boy become the least of her problems when Captain Westwood's ship docks at Windwaithe. With nowhere to escape, Sade must trust in the one person who doesn't fear the merfolk. A woman who had dealings with them herself-years ago

A mermaid haunts Adrienne's dreams . . . but are its strange warnings for good or evil? When Adrienne comes face-to-face with the mermaid of Windwaithe Island, she is convinced that it means her and the Windwaithe's harm. After all, the island is steeped in stories of mermaids' curses and ill-luck. But Adrienne is fierce-willed and courageous and is determined to protect her family and the islanders from danger. When her neighbours find out about Adrienne's encounters with the mermaid, she is more in peril than she could ever have imagined. They believe that, once active, the mermaid cannot be quieted until an islander is sacrificed to the sea.
