Smashwords – The Heart of Abundance: A Simple Guide to ...

The mouth speaks out of the abundance—the overflow—of the heart. The primary point of application in Jesus' words seems to be this: when we see evil consistently coming out of a person in word and deed, we should not deceive ourselves by saying, "I think he really is a good person inside; he just has some bad habits" or "That's just the way he talks, but he's not really like that."

What does it mean that "out of the abundance of the heart ...

For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. King James Bible A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. Christian Standard Bible

Luke 6:45 The good man brings good things out of the good ...

He said, "Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks." You can hide who you are for a little while, but sooner or later, your mouth let's others know what's on the inside. Most of us have filters we use when we speak, but even with them on, we let out some of what we really think.

out of the abundance of the heart | Devotions by Chris Hendrix

It is out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks and shows the heart of the person. The words we speak and what we do are controlled by our thoughts and the passions of our flesh. These are the fruits of our minds. Thus a person who does evil bears evil fruits and a person who does good bears good fruit in the words, deeds, and behaviour. The point Jesus was making is that it is not possible for an evil person to bear good fruit and vice versa.

Jesus declared, "A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks" (Luke 6:45). How true and how important a concept is contained in these few words. I'm reminded of a high school friend who went on to attend Ambassador College.
