The Justification of God: An Exegetical and Theological ...

The Justification of God, in my opinion, is one of Piper's best volumes. In it, he has produced a stellar example of Reformed exegesis which knocks you down, keeps you down, and forces you to the same conclusion by sheer force of the text being explained. In it, Romans 9:1-23 speaks, and it speaks loudly.

The Justification of God: An Exegetical and Theological ...

Overview. "I find The Justification of God the most compelling and forceful exposition of Romans 9:1-23 that I have ever seen," says

Richard Muller of Calvin Theological Seminary. The Justification of God brings together the best scholarship on and exegesis of Romans 9. Undergirded by the author's belief that the sovereignty of God is too precious a part of our faith to dismiss or approach weak-kneed, this book explores the Greek text and Paul's argument with singular deftness.

The Justification of God: An Exegetical and Theological ...

The Justification Of God is a compelling exposition of Romans 9:1-23. Piper incorporates exegetical study as discusses the texts presentation of God's sovereignty from a Calvinist standpoint. John Piper is senior pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church in Minneapolis. He did his doctoral work in theology at Munich.

The Justification of God | Desiring God

This book is a refutation of John Pipers book, "The Justification of God". His effort is to show that election is to service not to salvation. Myers whole premise falls apart without the presupposition that the whole book of Romans is NOT about salvation onto heaven.

of a legal declaration, a judicial pronouncement. It is not declaring what is already a reality from eternity past or what will be true in the future, but it is God's actual decision which takes place when a person believes.

The Doctrine of Justification - The Gospel Coalition

Definition. The righteousness of God in justification is both the divine attribute of righteousness, God's holy and perfect character, and the gift that God gives to sinners through his Son, the righteousness received by sinners through faith, which justifies them before a holy God.

The Righteousness of God in Justification - The Gospel ...

Answer: Simply put, to justify is to declare righteous, to make one right with God. Justification is God's declaring those who receive Christ to be righteous, based on Christ's righteousness being imputed to the accounts of those who receive Christ (2 Corinthians 5:21). Though justification as a principle is found throughout Scripture, the main passage describing justification in relation to believers is Romans 3:21-26: "But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been made ...

What is justification? What does it mean to be justified ...

My The Re-Justification of God is not a point-by-point refutation of Piper's The Justification of God. My book is not even a point-by-point refutation of the typical Calvinistic understanding of Romans 9. That is the book I set out to write, but it is not the book I am announcing here.

And that hope is embodied in the Doctrine of Justification, which teaches us that the righteousness God requires, the righteousness we need for a right standing before God is supplied for us by Christ. That's what he did with his life and his death. He lived a perfect life. He died as a guiltless man, but he died in payment for the sins of others.

What is Justification? How Are We Justified by Faith?

Justification of God. Great book, Piper is a true man of God. I found I had to read slowly and stop to digest the information often. This book is not for the faint of heart, but really brings clarity to the topic of election and God's rights as the sovereign King of the universe.

The Justification of God : An Exegetical and Theological ...

The doctrine of justification is one of the most important truths we find in God's Word. The discovery of this doctrine saved Martin Luther's life, and it must save ours as well. Without justification, there will only be the judgment of God. Justification is rightly described as the very hinge and pillar of Christianity.

What is justification? | Why is it so important ...

A. Justification is an act of God's free grace, wherein he pardoneth all our sins, and accepteth us as righteous in his sight, only for the righteousness of Christ imputed to us, and received by faith alone. Westminster Shorter Catechism Question 33 "The relationship of entailment between A [faith] and B [works] may be any of several kinds.

Justification

Also, the fact that justification is a finished work of God means that Christians have assurance of their salvation. In God's eyes, believers have the righteousness necessary to gain eternal life. Once a person is justified, there is nothing else he needs in order to gain entrance into heaven.

Why is justification by faith such an important doctrine ...

"This is a psalm about God's grace and about our being justified by no merit whatsoever on our part, but only by the mercy of the Lord our God, which forestalls anything that we may do..."² In his comments on the Apostle Paul's appeal to Abraham in Romans 4:1-4, Augustine wrote, Augustine, Psalms 32, and the Grace of Justification ...

In Christian theology, justification is God's righteous act of removing the guilt and penalty of sin while, at the same time, declaring the ungodly to be righteous, through faith in Christ's atoning sacrifice.
