"Then Came Alexandra" was a wonderful southern romance, and a fantastic book to start off E. L. Todd's new Southern Love Series. The story line and characters captivated me from the very beginning. I loved Alexandra and Blaise, and their journey together was certainly intriguing - if not a little frustrating at times.

Then Came Indecision which is book two of the Southern Love series by E.L. Todd. This book is not quite as good as the first one. It isn't a rehash of book one which is good; but it just doesn't pull the reader in as much. The characters are well-developed and realistic.
